Executors were Carter, and friends Abraham Hatchett, Grief Green, Rawleigh Carter, Sr.. Wit: Wm. Carter, Wm. Boram, Lemuel Bruce. This appears to be the son of James, as deed of 1748 shows James adj. land of Bruce.)

pg. 216, in the extracts of diaries, Appendix I, of Watson: "Last Sunday (13th), died at Blackstone, Richard Epes. He was born 1825 at "Walnut Hill". His father was Peter Epes, who married the daughter of Isaac Oliver, of Hendersonville, who was Richard Epes' mother. His grandfather was Richard Epes..." (This gives us a "time frame" for the account of Mr. Oliver in 1915.)

In Marriages of Amelia County, Virginia, 1735-1815, by Kathleen Booth Williams, pg. 81: 27 January 1785, Richard Oliver m. Mary Jennings. This substantiates Mr. Oliver's account of his grandfather, Richard, son of James. As the deeds in Amelia County are for "James Oliver and his wife Elizabeth". However, it was James Wray Oliver, son of Asa, and grandson of James, who married Elizabeth Green.

Judith Forest (Forrest), daughter of Richard S. Forest, and his wife Elizabeth Oliver, married Richard Priddy 7 March 1782 in Halifax Co., Va. (Halifax marriages, Book 1, pg. 82. Richard S. Forest gives consent, father of bride).

Richard S. Forest married Elizabeth Oliver, of Nottaway Parish, daughter of James Oliver, who consents, 19 Sept. 1765. (Amelia County, Va. marriage book F-1)

Richard S. Forest was the son of Abraham Forrest, Senior, Will of Abraham Forrest, Sr., Amelia Co., Nottaway Parish, proved Feb. 22, 1759: Wife, Judith and son George executors. Mentions sons John, Abraham, Jr., George, and Richard; daus. Elizabeth Motley, Mary "Foster" and Joyce Forrest; grandson Abraham Williams. Also mentions "all my land in Gloucester Co., Va. to be sold".

Deed book 3, p. 223, Amelia Co., Va.: Deed to Abraham Forrest, of Gloucester, land on Deep Creek and Coopers Branch, being part of patent to Robert Moody for 774 acres. Dated 1750.

Abraham, according to his will, had seven children, with Richard being the youngest, not yet 21 years old in 1759, at the time of Abraham's death, as we will see from other records. Abraham would have been born ca. 1700, or shortly before, and was of Gloucester Co., Va., according to his will and land records.

ibid: Vol. 111, pg. 82: Anne Forrest, 200 acrs. Gloucester Co., in Kingstone Parish; adj. Hunley; Billips' corner and Garrett's line; 26 Apr. 1704, part of 430 acres granted Abraham Long, and bequeathed to said Anne, his sister, by will proved 17 Apr. 1703.

Records of Colonial Gloucester Co., Va., by Polly C. Mason, Vol. 1, pg. 49:
Richard Long received land Dec. 6, 1652, 350 acres on Milford Haven W. side of branch dividing from George Billips for trans. 9 pers. including himself and his wife Ann Long.

As we can see from these land grants, Henry Forest received land upon Milford Haven Cr. and next to Billips. When he divided his land between two sons, John and Edmund, it was Edmund who inherited the land next to Billips. This was also the adjoining land to Richard Long, as described above. Also, in Cavaliers and Pioneers, Vol. 1, pg. 251, Richard Long received 430 acres 25 Nov. 1653, beginning at branch of Milford Haven, next to Billips. This appears to be the same land that Ann's brother, Abraham Long left to her, which would suggest that Ann and Abraham Long were the children of Richard Long and his wife, Ann; with Ann being named for her mother.

As Richard Long and Henry Forest had land adjoining (both on Milford Haven Cr., and next to Billips), it would appear that Ann Long was the wife of Edmund Forrest, as Edmund's land that he inherited from his father, Henry, was also next to Billips and on Milford Creek.

It would also suggest that Abraham Forest, who died in Amelia Co., Va. was the son of Edmund Forest and Ann Long Forrest, being named for Ann's brother, Abraham. It would also suggest that Richard Forrest, son of Abraham, was named for his grandfather, Richard Long.

On the 1704 Tax List and quit rents, we find Edmund stayed on in Gloucester Co, Va., and John moved to Henrico Co., Va.; and as we know, Abraham moved to Amelia County from Gloucester Co.. Which would again suggest that Abraham is the son of Edmund. In 1704 we find only Ann Forrest paying quit rent in Gloucester Co., suggesting that she was a widow.

Looking again at the will of Abraham Forrest in Amelia Co., we see that he also had a son named "George". Both the land of Richard Long and Edmund Forest (which he inherited from his father) adjoined Billips land, and a George Billips was still paying rent in 1704 in Gloucester Co., next to Ann Forest. ~~I~~ would suggest looking into the possibility that Abraham Forest, Senior, married Judith Billips, daughter of George Billips.

Billips, George: Land lying upon the branches of Milford Haven...which divides this from land of John Lillie. Nov. 25, 1653.; Nov. 25, 1653, upon Milford Haven...adj. Richard Long's; Jan 27, 1663, ...head of Garden Crk. opposite Forrest's. On April 16, 1683, a resurvey of Garden Crk. land, now adj. John Calles and "Edw. Forrest"; Nov. 7, 1700, beginning next to land of Lilly...formerly granted to Abraham Moone 1650, resurvey... ibid; Thomas Cheesman: land in Milford Haven, beginning near head of Lilly's, by Forrest's line "by agreement betwixt them both" ...go Garden Creek...450 acrs. granted Rigby in 1640, who sold Edmund Cheesman, father of said Thomas...

There is a good possibility that Henry Forrest's wife, Elizabeth, was formerly Elizabeth Cheesman, daughter of Edmund Cheesman. (note: the name "Edmund" appears as "Edward" and "Edmund" in the same document.)

~~Thus we have:~~

- I Henry Forrest m. Elizabeth _____ (probably Cheesman)
- II Edmund Forrest m. Ann Long
- III Abraham Forrest m. Judith Billips?
- IV Richard Forrest m. Elizabeth Oliver
- V Judith Forrest m. Richard Priddy

Terry

The Virginia Independent Chronicle, 29 July 1789: Looking for "William Terry, a legatee of Stephen Terry, deceased late of Hanover County...William left Caroline Co. around 1764 and may have been in the 96 District of South Carolina in 1786."

Granville Co., N.C. Deed Bk. K, pg. 112, 20 Oct. 1769: James Terry and his wife Henrietta of Louisa Co., Va., to Joseph Winston of Granville Co., N.C., conveys 200 acres on NutBush Cr., it being the 200 acres given to James by his father, Stephen Terry.
James Terry, brother of Rowland, remained in Louisa Co., Va. where he died and left a will naming his wife, Henrietta and their children.
Rowland Terry moved to Granville Co., N.C. and appears on the 1769 tax list.

Rowland Terry was living in the Island Creek district of Granville Co., and along with Gideon Gooch, took his oath of allegiance in 1777. (N.C. State Records, Vol. 22, pgs. 174-175.)

Rowland Terry's will, dated Nov. 11, 1819, proved 1824, although not settled until after 1832. (Abstracts of Wills of Granville Co., N.C. by Gwynn, Vol. II, 1821-1824, pg. 166): He leaves to sons Stephen, Curtis, Thomas, James, John, Rowland, William; and Elizabeth, Prudence, and John Gooch, heirs of John Gooch, dec'd. (note: these were grandchildren), to Godfrey Akin and Henry Johnson. Executors: son Thomas and Joseph Norwood.

John Terry, son of Rowland, born 28 Jan. 1776; d. 25 May 1855; m. Sarah Gooch, b. 1779, d. 25 July 1849. Both buried in Sulligent, Ala.

John Terry, son of Rowland, married Sarah Gooch, daughter of Gideon Gooch, Sept. 26, 1798. The Terry and Gooch families were intermarried long before Granville Co., N.C., however, even moreso in Granville Co.:

Lt. Col. Henry Gooch was deceased before 1688, at the time of Rev. Rowland Jones' will. In the Vestry Book of St. Peter's Parich, New Kent Co., Va., 1689, a list of "inhabiters" belonging to St. Peter's in Pamunkey Neck included "Mrs. Gooch". along with Gideon Macon.

Lt. Col. Henry and Jane Gooch had issue: Henry, Rowland, Jane and Elizabeth.

Cavaliers and Pioneers, by Nell. M. Nugent, Vol. III, pg. 47: Jane Gooch, King & Queen Co., in Pamunkey Neck, in St. John's Parish on John's Creek (Jack's Creek) 25 April 1701. (Gideon Macon also received land there on the same date).

Jane Gooch died between Feb. 1701/2, the date of her will, and when it was proved 17 July 1701/2, and one of the few wills not destroyed in King William Co., Va.. She mentions her children, as well as step-son, William. Her executors were her sons, Henry and Rowland Gooch.

According to the previously stated land records, her land was in Pamunkey Neck, St. John's Parish, King William Co.. St. John's Parish was formed in 1680 and was from 1680 until 1691 in New Kent Co.; from 1691 until 1701 it was King and Queen Co.; and in 1701, shortly after she received her land, it fell in King William Co.. Originally, it was all Blisland Parish, York Co.. In 1721, St. Margaret's Parish was formed by dividing St. John's which was taken from King William, and now lay entirely in Caroline Co. (ref: Parish Lines Diocese of Virginia, by Virginia State Lib., Richmond, Va.)

As we said before, nearly all of King William's records were destroyed, with the exception of a very few, as were the records of Caroline Co., with the exception of the Order and Minute Books, which are unindexed. However, there are a few records that remain in the Order books to give us a few clues to the Gooch family.

From Caroline County, Va. Order Book 1732-1734, by John Frederick Dorman:

1732-John Gooch served on jury (pg. 21)
1733- 14 June, last will and testament of James "Gough" was proved. Ann Gouch, relict.
1737-9 Dec. John Gouge and John Gooch, Jr. proved deed of Wm. Poe.
1737- John Gooch, Jr., on road project.
1737- John Gooch put in an account and voucher of the estate of John Mordin.

Order Book 1746-1748 by Dorman:

1746 - It is ordered Henry Webster and Ann Oakey be summoned to prove will of John Gouge.

1746- 14 March, 1746, upon petition of "Winney" Gooch, it's ordered she have administration of the estate of John Gooch, who with John Beasley and Arron Quisenbury, her security acknowledged bond. (pg. 14).

1746, 8 May, inventory of estate of John Gooch, Sr., returned. (pg. 20).

Court held 9 Nov. 1752: John Gouch deed to Henry Terrell was proved by John Comer, Carr McGeehee and Elizabeth McGeehee, witnesses. (this would have been John Gooch, Jr.)

Carr McGeehee and Elizabeth, his wife, acknowledged their deed indented to Henry Terrell.

Carr McGeehee and Elizabeth, his wife, acknowledged their deed indented to Manoah Chiles.

11 May, 1750, Daniel Green, (father of Henry?), acknowledged his deeds of lease and release and bond to John Gooch. (pg. 77)

Caroline County, a History of Caroline Co., Va., by T.E. Campbell:

1768- Henry Gooch, dec'd, Martha Gooch, executor (pg. 483).

1768- Mary Gooch, dec'd. Simon Miller, William Miller, John Ford, George Alsop, exec. or adm. (probably appraisers.) (pg. 481).

(note: in York Co., 1656, Henry Gooch witnessed will of James Miller).

Copied from Caroline County Order Book for 1771, in Caroline Co. Courthouse: 11 July 1771, Deed of John Chiles, Jeremiah Harris, and Henry Chiles to Thomas Chiles, proved by oath of Manoah Chiles and GIDEON GOOCH.

As we can see from these meager records in Caroline Co., there was Henry Gooch, as well as James, John, Sr., John, Jr., and Gideon Gooch; also Martha, Mary, Winney, and Ann Gooch. Ann was the wife of James; "Winney" appears to have been the wife of John, Sr.; Martha possibly the wife of Henry; and it appears that Mary could have possibly been the wife of John Gooch, Jr., as his wife was dec'd at the time of his will which was filed in Granville Co., N.C..

Virginia Gazette and General Advertiser, 24 Nov. 1790: "Carr McGehee, deceased., 527 acres of his land in Caroline County to be sold by his executor Henry Chiles; his legatees are: GIDEON GOOCH and Benjamin Hutchins of North Carolina, Samuel McGehee of Amherst Co., and John McGehee of Bedford Co."

This would imply that perhaps Gideon's wife was Mary McGehee, daughter of Carr McGehee. According to records, Benjamin Hutchins married Judith McGehee, dau. of Carr, and also went to Granville Co., N.C. as did Gideon Gooch. It would appear that Gideon Gooch and Benjamin Hutchins married sisters.

Henry Gooch, son of Lt. Col. Henry Gooch and Jane Jones Gooch, was in that part of King William Co. that became Caroline Co.. Henry would have had to have been at least 21 years old to have been an executor of his mother's will in 1702. Had he been the youngest of the four children, he could have possibly been born as late as 1680, and thus could have been the Henry dec'd. in 1768, with Martha serving as the executor or administrator.

On the other hand, it is possible that Henry, John Sr., and James, were sons of Henry II, and grandsons of Lt. Col. Henry and Jane. Which would make John, Jr., a great-grandson and Gideon a great-great-grandson. It is my opinion that the Henry who died in Caroline Co. was the son of Lt. Col. Henry and Jane, and that John, Jr. was the grandson because of the names of the children in John Jr.'s will, as we will see later.

John Gooch, Jr., along with other members of his family, moved sometime after 1771 to Granville Co., N.C.. They settled in the Island Creek district of Granville where in 1777, Gideon Gooch is listed as having taken the State Oath of Allegiance. (N.C. State Records, Vol. 22, pg. 174-175).

Abstracts of Wills and Estates of Granville Co., N.C., by Zae H. Gwynn, Vol. I, 1746-1808, pg. 176:

The will of John Gooch, written 20 April 1785, proved Nov. Court 1793, he leaves to his son, Gideon, land in Caroline Co., Va., "which he sold and received the profits"...also to daughter Elizabeth Terry; Anna Maria Minter now Williams; sons John; Rowland; Joseph; and William. Executors: sons Joseph and John. Witnesses: Daniel and William Gooch. James Terry, and John Gooch. No wife was mentioned, meaning she was probably dec'd before 1785, and it is possible that she was the "Mary Gooch" who died in Caroline Co., Va..

As we can see from the names of the children: Gideon was obviously named for Gideon Macon, a relative of Jane Jones Gooch; Rowland named for father and brother of Jane, the Rev. Rowland Joneses; Elizabeth for Jane's sister; and Anna Maria was probably for Anna Maria Jones, a neice of Jane Gooch. Thus the names tend to suggest that John Gooch, Jr., was the grandson of Lt. Col. Henry and Jane Jones Gooch, rather than a great-grandson.

Gideon's will, dated 5 Sept., 1800, and proved in Nov. Court 1800,, leaves to wife Mary, and eight children: John, Elizabeth, Mary Terry, Nancy Terry, Gideon, Sarah Terry, Susannah Strom, and Judith. (Abstracts etc. by Gwynn, pg. 240)

As noted earlier, Mary McGehee, probable wife of Gideon Gooch, had a sister named Judith who married Ben. Hutchins and moved to Granville Co., N.C., along with Gideon.)

The Gooch family and Terry family were intermarried from the very beginning, long before Caroline Co., Va., and Granville Co., N.C.; and Gideon Gooch's children added to that intermarriage:

- John Gooch m. Sarah Terry 1790
- Mary Gooch m. James Terry 1792
- Nancy Gooch m. Wm. Terry 1793
- Sarah Gooch m. John Terry 1798

There are numerous references to the Terry and Gooch families in Granville. In Kinfolk of Granville Co., N.C. 1765-1826, by Zae H. Gwynn, pg. 137: William Terry, James Terry, John Terry, Gideon Gooch, Hezekiah Strum, Curtis Terry and John Gooch relinquished all their rights as heirs of Gideon Gooch, dec'd. in land and personal property that was willed by said Gideon Gooch on Sept. 5, 1800 to his wife for her lifetime and then divided among all the legatees,, all being of age. Oct. 29, 1803. In Abstracts and Wills of Granville, by Gwynn, 1808-1833, pg. 45: John Terry received his full share of his wife in her father, Gideon Gooch, estate from executor William Gooch 1806.

These were the last records in Granville Co. (that this writer could find) for John Terry and Sarah Gooch Terry. Sometime before 1809, John and Sarah moved to Tenn., and by 1818 they were in Cotaco County, Ala., which was renamed Morgan Co., Ala..

From various Bible and family records of Priddy, Woods, and Reeves families:

Priddy Family

Priddy
After visiting the Halifax County Courthouse, copying the records dealing with the Priddy family, and re-reading all of the records for about the tenth time, it appears that there were three Priddy brothers in Halifax: Richard, Thomas, and George; along with at least one brother-in-law: Dudley Glass; and James Oliver, a relative. James Oliver was related to Judith Forest, wife of Richard Priddy (Judith was the daughter of Richard Forest and Elizabeth Oliver. Elizabeth was the daughter of James Oliver, Sr., and sister of James, Jr.. The James Oliver in Halifax was an uncle to Judith Priddy and the younger James was a cousin).

One would think that the earliest court records would be filed in the first, or earliest books, but in Halifax, that isn't necessarily the case. Also the wills are in books marked "Wills, Judgements, Accounts, Etc", other records are in "Court Pleas" books and "Minute Books", and many are unindexed.

Court Pleas, Book P-15, pgs. 198 and 207:

"In appearing to the satisfaction of the court by the testimony of sundry witnesses that Robert Priddy of this county is of insane mind and that his estate is likely to be wasted Therefore for the better securing of the same and in conformity to an act of general assembly in such cases made and provided. The court doth appoint Dudley Glass as Committee for the said Robert and it is ordered that the estate belonging to the said Robert now in the hands of Thomas Priddy and others be immediately delivered up into the hands of the said committee who is also appointed to take care and support the said Robert with every necessity of life and that the said committee render a schedule of the said estate, as also a yearly account of the profits and disbursements of the said estate to the court. And that he give sufficient security for the due and faithful performance of the same. Whereupon the said Dudley Glass, with James McCraw (in some places MCraw or MCram etc) and James Oliver his security severally acknowledged themselves. Indebted to the justices etc. etc." Signed Dudley Glass, James McCraw, James Oliver. May 1791

Note: "of insane mind" can mean senile" as well as nutty as a fruitcake. He could also have been the victim of an accident...who knows. But, "he ain't dead yet"! He wasn't always "of insane mind" as we will see later.

Robert doesn't die until 1834, as we will see from the following records. And also as we will see in the following records, he has a brother Henry who is still in Hanover Co., and owes money to Robert. Henry died in Hanover in 1797 and the money was collected. Robert lived with Dudley Glass from 1791 until some time after Sept. 30, 1816, when he was placed in a "poor house". At that time, the "poor house" meant not poor financially, but poor as in the term "poor Robert", and they charged dearly. Today it would be like a convalescent home, or nursing home.

Dudley Glass was a contemporary of Richard Priddy, both serving in the Rev. War, and both born at approximately the same time. Richard was born April 30, 1760. Robert Priddy lived with Dudley Glass from 1791 until long after 1816, a period of well over 25 years. I would think that a daughter and son-in-law might put up with that, but a sister and brother-in-law probably wouldn't, especially when there was enough money for the "poor house" or nursing home.

It would appear that the "estate" mentioned in the records relates to an "inherited estate", or rather money inherited by Robert, and not the "estate of Robert", especially in view of the fact that Henry, his brother in Hanover, still owed Robert money. (see following records).

The next record in Halifax: June Court, 1791, pg. 207: "Schedule of Robert Priddy. "a schedule of the Estate of Robert Priddy, deceased, was returned into court by Dudley Glass and his committee, and ordered to be recorded."

(note: the next entry was for Thomas Ragland who was a neighbor of the Priddys in Hanover).

This was NOT the Robert of Halifax, but rather the Robert of Hanover, as we can see by the following records. Also, the Robert of Halifax was referred to as "Dr. Robert Priddy".

At the October Court session, 1792, was the 1791 accounting of Dudley Glass: Account: Will Book, Accounts, Judgements, etc. Bk. 3, pages 18, 19, 90, 91, 121, 273, 386. (Dudley was also caring for the slaves of Robert):

for three yards cloth

for making one pair of overalls

To pay for attorney to recover property from Thomas Priddy that had been taken and for the sale for three negroes by Thomas that he had not paid Robert.

shirt, buttons, etc. listed

Brown linen for overalls for the negroes

One jacket, coats, stockings and various other articles mentioned.

Paid Mathew Farmer for expences of sundry items

It also uses the phrase "paid for your shoes" and "by the hire of your negroes" and the last statement was:

"By your money in hands of your brother Henry Priddy in Hanover not received".

At a court held for Halifax Co. 23 October 1792. The within account against the estate of Robert Priddy was returned to court by Dudley Glass.

There were accountings for every year- 1791, 1792, 1793, etc. and each year is stated "money in the hands of your brother, Henry, still not received".

On the 1796 accounting: pg. 386, September 1797 Court: By cash received of John Martin, administrator of Henry Priddy, deceased, 35 pounds, 13 shillings, and 4 1/2 pence.

For 1795, the accounting records read "Robert Priddy to Dudley Glass" and do not refer to "estate of". However, at the end of the accounting for Dudley Glass states "at a court held 26 October 1795 the within written account against the Estate of George Priddy was returned in court by Dudley Glass."

In Will, Judgement, Account Book #10, pg. 696: October 28, 1816 session:

Account by Dudley mentions the usual articles of cloth, stockings, shirt, etc. and cash paid to John Glass. The last statement stated "to my trouble in transacting Robert Priddy's business from 1791 until Sept. 30, 1816, and for boarding. Out of 204 pounds, 10 shillings, Dudley only charged the amount of 37 pounds for 25 years of work and accountings. Seems like a rather small amount for all his trouble.

In the Accounts for 1833, given by Charles Harris, it states Accounts for Robert Priddy, deceased. Will, Accounts, Judgements, etc. Book 17, pages 134-135: Itmes paid: to N.L. Harris medical account; Amount due to the overseers of the poor for board for said Robert Priddy's maintenance, in the poor house for one year, 9 months, and ten days at the rate of $4.25 per month. With interest on the amount from 30 Nov. 1831 until 28 July 1834. The accounts were examined, stated, and settled. The final balance due to the estate was 126 pounds, 95 shillings, and 1/4 pence.

In the Court Pleas Book P-10, pages 358, 363, and 387:
July Court, 1783: Samuel Maccran is appointed surveyor of the Mill Stone Road from Maccraw's path to the Race paths, and it is ordered that Richard Priddy and others keep the said road in repair.

pg 363: Elizabeth Walron against Richard Priddy and Dudley Glass. Defendants did not appear, but Elizabeth produced a note for 3 pounds and 3 shillings due her, and it was ordered that they pay along with court costs, as well as interest on the money from 15 Feb. 1782.

pg. 387: John Coleman, County Lieutenant, against Richard Priddy. On a motion agreeable with the Act of Assembly instituted and an act for recruiting their States quota of Troops to serve in the Army of the United States. Having proved that he had given the defendant legal notice of this motion, it is considered by the court that he recover the sum of one pound eight shillings and three pence with five percent interest.

In Court Pleas Book P-11, pg. 106:

July Court, 1784: John Coleman, county Lieutenant, against Richard Priddy and Dudley Glass: Motion to recover bond, Priddy and Glass to pay 2 pounds, 16 shillings and seven pence, together with court costs.

July Court, 1784: Elizabeth Waldron against Richard Priddy and James Oliver. To collect the sum of eight pounds, twelve shillings and six pence, with interest due from 21 August 1783, plus court costs.

Court Pleas Bk. P-12, pgs. 72, 119, 179, 184, 337, 339:

February Court, January 1787: Thomas Priddy is given permission to keep an Ordinary in his house, together with Dudley Glass as his security.

Pg. 119: Yuille and Barksdale against Thomas Priddy: Richard Priddy comes into court and undertakes for the defendant that in case he shall be cast in the action aforesaid that he said defendant shall pay and satisfy unto the plaintiffs their costs and condemnation of the court or render his body to prison in execution for the same or that he, the said Richard, will do it for him. March Court, 1787.

Also on pg. 119: Same day: James Hurt against Thomas Priddy and Dudley Glass. Richard Priddy came into court and undertakes for the defendants that in case they shall be cast in the action that they shall pay or their bodys to prison in execution for the same, or that he the said Richard shall do it for them.

In March Court, 1788: pg. 339: On the motion of James Hurt, judgement is granted him against Thomas Priddy and his joint bond with Richard Priddy. Thomas and Richard are to pay twelve pounds eight shillings and six pence with interest from the 10th day of August 1787.

There are numerous other records of Thomas and Richard being brought into court for money due someone, but unfortunately, it doesn't say what the money is due for, or why they owe it. Each time, they seem to promise to pay, but there is no way to know what the out-come was on these cases. It will also be noted that these cases were in 1787, before Robert Priddy was living with Dudley Glass in 1791; or when Dudley Glass had to recover money that Thomas had received from the sale of Robert Priddy's slaves, or property that he had taken from Robert Priddy. At this point in time, Dudley Glass is friendly with Thomas and Richard, serving as a bondsman and witness for the marriage of Richard Priddy in 1782 to Judith Forest, and serving as a bondsman for Thomas when Thomas opened his Ordinary, etc.. However, when Dudley Glass had to hire an attorney to collect from Thomas for Robert, the friendship seemed to cool a bit as he no longer appears with them on the court records. It would appear that Robert Priddy moved to Halifax County sometime prior to 1779, as we see from the Hanover records.

Vestry Book Records, St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co., Va.:

1711: Nicholas Priddy

1716: Nicholas Priddy

1719: Last entry for Nicholas Priddy

1751: Robert Priddy and George Priddy, with neighbors James Ragland, Davis, Glen, and Hundley, among others.

1755: Robert and George Priddy, on same land, next to same neighbors.

1759: Robert and George on same land.

1763: Robert and George on same land; James Ragland, deceased; Ed Hundley, deceased.

1767: Robert and George Priddy on same land, next to Pettus Ragland, Glens, Davis, etc.

1771: Robert Priddy, deceased; George Priddy, deceased; land next to Pettus Ragland, James Ragland, Ann Ragland, Hundley, deceased; Dudley Glass, etc.

Note: this is the first entry for Dudley Glass, and his land was next to the Priddy land. Dudley Glass served in the Rev. War, along with Richard Priddy, and was a contemporary of Richard's although a bit older.

1779: "the land that was Robert Priddy's" and Henry Priddy, Ed Hundley, dec'd, Gideon Ragland, Ed. Davis, etc...Same land as that of Robert and George Priddy, both now deceased, although the latter Robert and George were deceased before 1771, and the land was now in the hands of Robert and Henry.

1784: Ordered that Henry Priddy and Gideon Ragland do processioning for district #19. Pettus Ragland is now in District #22.

The only mention of Robert is in 1779 "the land that was Robert Priddy's" and there is no mention in 1779 of Dudley Glass. Meaning that they had left Hanover before 1779. And as we saw in the Halifax Co. records, Henry still owed money to Robert. As there were few deeds to survive in Hanover, and only a few of the Parish records, it would appear that Henry bought the land from Robert when Robert moved to Halifax, and was a bit late in paying him. Henry died in 1797, as we saw in the Halifax records, and John Martin of Hanover was the administrator of the estate, at which time he paid 35 pounds 13 shillings and 4 pence to Robert Priddy, money still owed.

There is an interesting will to survive in the Chancery Court records in Hanover Co., and appears as "Priddy Executors vs Priddy 1834". Thomas Priddy, of the City of Richmond, being of sound mind, etc. etc. after paying his sisters Jane and Catherine leaves everything to Miss Susan Thomas and her son Wm Henry. He leaves all his money, furniture, books, - his entire estate. He appoints his friend, Philip Winston, to look after the boy, to take him into his home and care for his affairs, etc. until Wm Henry reaches the age of 21. If Wm Henry or Miss Susan Thomas die then everything is to be divided between his brother's and sister's children, except Robert's children and they are to get nothing. Nathaniel Glen was the executor.

Glen of Hanover had a suit that involved a deed of trust between John L. Priddy and Sally his wife, of Hanover, to collect money owed on 74 acres of land four miles from the Hanover Courthouse. John Priddy was indebted to Thomas for the land.

It should be noted that the Glen family was neighbors of the Priddy family in Hanover, and it would appear that Thomas was probably a brother of Robert and Henry. And that Thomas named an illegitimate son for Henry.

There was one mention of Richard Priddy in Hanover. In the will of Pettus Ragland, 1806, he mentions a horse that formerly was the property of Richard Priddy. This is the only entry I could find of Richard Priddy. However, Pettus Ragland also owned land in Halifax as early as 1778, in Antrim Parish on North side of Manister River, bounded by Butler's land and John Slaughter's new line. He was also witness on several wills in Halifax Co.. His will, however, was recorded in Hanover Co..

It would appear that Robert Priddy, of Hanover and Halifax, lived to be a very old man, was born around 1735-1740, lived well into his 90s. For over 25 years with his son-in-law, Dudley Glass, and then in a nursing home. For the latter years he was very senile or mentally handicapped. As he was referred to as "Dr. Priddy" on most of the records in Halifax, and had money enough to pay for his nursing home, slaves, etc. he wasn't always "mentally handicapped". And it appears that most of his money was spent for maintaining him in his later years. It also appears that there was a "falling out" between Dudley Glass, Thomas and Richard Priddy over money and property that had been "taken" from Robert. It also appears that Robert was the father of Richard, Thomas, and George.

Because of the name George, and because Robert named a son by that name, as did Richard, I had first thought that perhaps George Priddy of Hanover was the father of Robert. However, after a careful review of the records in Halifax, and the few remaining Vestry records in Hanover, it now appears that the "estate of Robert Priddy" in the records of Halifax were referring to the estate of Robert Priddy in Hanover which had been left to his son Robert, now in Halifax. And that Henry, brother of Robert of Halifax, purchased the land in Hanover from his brother Robert, and owed Robert until Henry's death. There were only two possible fathers for Robert: Robert and George. Both Robert and George of Hanover were sons of Nicholas.

In The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. XVI, July 1908, No. 1, pg. 174-175: Rev. War Pension Declaration from Pittsylvania Co., Va. for Joseph Smith, he states that he was discharged at Halifax Co. by Colo. Priddy the 28th day of July 1781. Who was this "Col. Priddy"? Richard was a private, as we know from his Rev. War records. As Robert was much older, could he have also served in the Rev. War and was a Col.?

Found in Hanover Co., also published in the William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol XXII 1913-1914, pgs. 26, 28, 115, 117, 118, 119, 169, 172: Keeping in mind that Henry Priddy was a brother of Robert Priddy of Halifax.

Feb. 4, 1791 - Robt. Sydnor & Lucy to James Harris 400 acrs. adj. Lipscomb, Peter Winston, dec'd, Mrs. Clark, and Henry Priddy.

Oct. 4, 1784 - John Grimes to James of Caroline 400 acrs. said land bought by Wm Grimes, dec'd, from Jacob Hundley, adj. Henry Priddy, Ambrose Lipscomb, Alex King.

July 21, 1790 - John Tinsley to Peter Cristian. Wit. Robert Priddy. (Note: this was not the Robert Priddy of Halifax.) Land adj. Wm. Tinsley, James Cross, Henry Cross, John Penns and Richard Glazebrook.

Apr. 19, 1786- James Harris to John Taylor on Sinking Hole Creek, adj. Lipscomb, King, dec'd, and Henry Priddy.

Apr. 1, 1790 - John Priddy and Rachel, his wife, to Thomas Price, 80 acres adj. Wm Dickinson, Henry Mallory, Dolby's.

Apr. 7, 1784 - Thomas Priddy & Mary, his wife, to Henry Priddy 10 acrs "being same I sold him some time back adj. where I now live."

March 4, 1785 - Penelleppey Price, relinquishment to sale, husband George Priddy, made Nov. 6, 1784 to Parke Goodall, 83 acrs.

Apr. 6, 1791- Henry Priddy to James Priddy 55 A. on Licking Hole swamp (formerly held by Ed. England) John Priddy, Sr. (doesn't say if John was witness or that land was adj.- just the name.)

Note: The land of the Priddy's was adj. to the Raglands in Hanover Co., as seen in the earlier Vestry Book. The following entry was made:

Jan 4, 1787- Wm. Ragland and Mary, his wife, to Parke Goodall 170 acres which land was given said Wm Ragland by his father, Pettus Ragland, and adj; the land of his brother John Ragland, the said Goodall, James Cross, Jr., Matt Pate, and Jno. Madderson.

Notice that the name Parke Goodall was also associated with Penelleppey Price and George Priddy. It would appear that George Priddy was married to Penny Price, and she relinquished her right to land. George is still alive at this time because dead men don't make sales! However, this probably isn't the George of Halifax Co..

I think what we are dealing with in these Hanover records is the family of Henry Priddy, brother of Robert Priddy of Halifax. Although I have not thoroughly studied these Hanover records as we know Robert was already down in Halifax County by this time, and Richard was already married there in 1782. However, we do know that Henry was the brother of Robert, and these records can give us a little view into Henry.

Richard Priddy, son of Robert, states on his Rev. War Pension application that he was born 30 April 1760 in Hanover Co., Va., and enlisted in the service in 1776, when he was not yet 16 years old. He was mustered out of service in New York in 1779 after serving three years. After the service he went to Halifax County, Va., where he married Judith Forest, daughter of Richard S. Forest and Elizabeth Oliver, 7 March 1782. Dudley Glass served as both bondsman and witness on the marriage. (Rev. War Pension Application and Widow's Application # W.5593, B.L. In 1782, Richard's land bordered that of George Priddy, and was very near that of Thomas Priddy and Dudley Glass, his brother-in-law, and his wife, Frances, sister of Richard. Richard and Judith Priddy moved from Halifax Co., Va. to Jefferson Co., Tenn. residing for a while in the section that became Cocke County. In court minutes of Jefferson County, in the Feb. Court Session 1795, Richard was involved in a suit as a defendant with Andrew Neely. Until 1813, Richard appeared several times on Jury Duty in Jefferson Co.. A bill of sale from Richard Priddy to William Moore for one negro woman named Beck and a child named Chani was proven in July 1800. He was appointed inspector of Cotton by the court in 1806 with Permenas Taylor as security.

In 1813, Richard signed papers for son Thomas J.'s War of 1812 muster and pay, stating he was a resident of Knox County, Tenn.. His son, Thomas J., enlisted at the age of 16 with his father's permission.

In the National Archives Land Records Office, Suitland, Maryland: Certificate #2088. Land Office Huntsville, Ala. Richard Priddy on 13 July 1818 purchased NW Section, No. 27, Township No. 5, Range 4 W, a quarter section containing 159.04 acres for $2.00 a acre, total price $318.08. Assignee of John Winston of Morgan Co.. John Winston's purchase was Certificate #4256, dated 12 Aug. stating he had assigned the land in Morgan Co. to Richard Priddy. Richard recorded the land 19 Sept. 1821. Also certificate No. 2045, Huntsville, Ala., Jonathan Burleson, Assignee to Richard Priddy, 79.52 acres, for which Richard paid $159.04. (note: Richard Priddy's land in Range 4W bordered on the land of John Terry.) This land was in Cotaco Co., Ala., later named Morgan Co., and the land records are filed in Suitland, Maryland. The land office for this period of time was located in Huntsville, Ala., Madison County, Ala..

In 1813, Richard Priddy was in Knox County, Tenn., and in 1818 he moved to Morgan Co., Ala., where he applied for his Rev. War pension on 22 April 1828. They moved to Marion County, Ala. just after Richard applied for his pension, where he died in 1831. After his death, Judith lived with her daughter, Malinda Terry, wife of Thomas Terry, and is listed on the 1850 census in their household, in Oketibbeha Co., Miss. Thomas Terry, her son-in-law, helped her file her Rev. War widow's pension. They were members of the Primitive Baptist Church at Double Springs, Oketibbeha Co., Miss., and on page 6 of the early church records it states: "Judith Priddy, deceased 1857". (It also states: Malinda Terry dismissed. The Thomas Terry family moved to Ark. in 1858).

Sometime between 1820 and 1822 in Morgan Co., Ala., Thomas J. Priddy married Margaret "Peggy" Terry, daughter of John and Sarah Gooch Terry. Unfortunately, only a few of the early marriages survived because until 1821 Morgan was still Cotaco County. However, this marriage was proven in the War of 1812 pension application of Thomas Priddy, as well as being listed in the family Bible, and family correspondence which survived. The Terry family was living next door to the Priddy family both in Morgan Co., and again on the 1830 census of Marion Co., Ala.. Also, unfortunately, the records were burned in a courthouse fire in Marion Co..

Margaret, or "Peggy" as she was called, died in 1862 in Itawamba Co., Miss. and Thomas remarried Elizabeth Powers Brown, widow of Andrew Brown. In 1869, they moved to Texas, going first to Johnson Co. and then to Kaufman Co. where Thomas died 28 Dec. 1876. He is buried in the Fox Cemetery, just outside of Egypt, Texas.

William J. Priddy, son of Thomas and Peggy, married Sophronia D. Reeves, sister of Andrew Jackson Reeves, who had married Celia Ann Priddy. John T. Priddy, son of Thomas and Peggy, married Mary M. Reeves, another sister of Andrew Jackson's. Out of 11 children, three of them married into the Reeves family.

In the summer of 1865, Mary Reeves Priddy had typhoid. The doctor's treatment for typhoid was to make a ring of blisters from blister bugs around the patient's waist which was to serve as a counter irritant. In this case, the blisters spread over much of her abdomen and death came after 40 days of illness. She died in Sept. 1865. While Mary was sick, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Priddy, her step-mother, was on her way to see her and fell from a 10 rail fence, breaking her back in the fall. One of John and Mary Reeves' children, Elvira, lived with Thomas and Elizabeth to care for "Granny Priddy" after she broke her back.

It was said that after Thomas Priddy came to Texas, he would often lament "I came a thousand mile and left a better country than I'll ever find".

It is located on the film entitled "Frances Abernathey's Scrapbook".
